From the King of Poland's Camp at Wolpa, 6 Leagues from Grodno, Auguſt 4. N. S.

WE are come hither from Grodno, and ſhall ſhortly continue our March, in order to join the Muſcovite Army, which is at Bickow, and conſiſts of 60000 Men. Letters from thence give an Account, That the Sieur Siniecki, General of the Artillery, whom the King ſent lately to concert Matters with the Czar, was arrived there, and had been ſeveral times in Conference with him; and that a Detachment of 5000 Muſcovite Horſe and 5 Regiments of Foot, under the Command of Major-General Garbowa, was marched from thence to obſerve the Swediſh Troops towards Plosko. The King of Sweden with his Army has been at Lublin, and is marching towards the Frontiers of Poland. The Confederated Nobility who are in his Intereſt demanded a Contribution of 120000 Guilders from the Palatinate of Lublin for the Subſiſtence of their Troops; but have contented themſelves with 50000 Guilders, which the Inhabitants have been forced to raiſe for that purpoſe. They had ſummoned a Diet of that Palatinate to meet about this time; but have put it off to the latter end of the next Month. They have plundered and burnt the Town of Kurow, and its Dependencies; as alſo ſeveral Villages about Lublin, which belonged to the Weywod Talow, the Caſtellan of Lublin, and ſeveral others of the Nobility who continue in the King's Intereſt. The Swediſh Forces commanded by General Reinſchild are in the Neighbourhood of Lowitz.

Dantzick, Auguſt 25. A large French Ship which ſailed from hence 3 days ago, richly laden, met with bad Weather, and was forced aſhore yeſterday near Heel, and bulged: A Swediſh Ship, and another belonging to Lubeck, were alſo caſt away in the ſame Storm. Letters from Poland ſay, That the King of Sweden decamped from Woſnoniz the 15th Inſtant, and marched towards Kaliſch. The King of Poland is marching to join the Czar of Muſcovy, who is come into Lithuania with an Army of about 60000 Men. General Lewenhaupt, who commands the Swediſh Forces on that ſide, has drawn them together, and obſerves their Motions. They write from Lemberg, That the Coſſacks have lately plundered and burnt two ſmall Towns in that Palatinate.

Vienna, Auguſt 21. The Emperor has advanced General Taun, who now commands his Forces, and thoſe of the Duke of Savoy, at Turin, to the Poſt of General of the Artillery; and the Count de Fels to that of Lieutenant Field Marſhal-General. Count Nicholas Palfy, who was Colonel of a Regiment of Heydukes in the Emperor's Service, being lately dead of a Fever, the Emperor intends to beſtow that Commiſſion upon the Prince d'Elbeuf. Baron Freybergh, Envoy from the Biſhop of Aichſtet, has in his Maſter's Name received from his Imperial Majeſty the Inveſtiture of that Principality. Count Kuffſtein, chief Commiſſary at War, went from hence the 17th Inſtant towards Lintz, to review the Regiments that are coming from the Rhine, to reinforce the Imperial Army in Hungary under the Command of General Staremberg. Count Leopold Palfi, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment de la Tour, came lately with ſome Diſpatches from that General, giving an Account of the Poſture of Affairs in thoſe Parts; and has ſince been ſent back with further Inſtructions to him upon that Subject. Letters from Hungary ſay, That General Staremberg has ſent a Detachment to the Relief of the Caſtle of Gran, which is hard preſſed by the Malecontents, who are Maſters of the Town. A Detachment of their Troops attempted lately to force our Lines along the River Morava, near Gheſting, which are guarded by a Body of Militia, who made ſo good a Defence, that the Enemy were forced to retire with the Loſs of 200 Men killed upon the Spot, and many wounded.
